Board hears public

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — District 9 School Superintendent Max Redmond's relationship with the Granite City School Board will be the topic of a special School Board meeting called June 12.

It is expected to take place at 7:30 p.m. in the board office at 20th and Adams streets.

A public forum sponsored by Granite City Concerned Citizens will convene at 7 p.m. in the Township Hall on the same evening to discuss School Board actions and board President Dewey Melton's recent request for Redmond's resignation.

The meeting between Redmond and the School Board was announced Tuesday night after a two-and-a-half hour executive session.

Redmond's position with the board has been in doubt since May 20 when Redmond failed to recommend board choices for two positions within the school administration.

After the May 20 meeting Melton criticized Redmond for subjecting the board to public embarrassment by not recommending candidates endorsed by the board.

Further, Melton Tuesday told the public he went to Redmond's office May 30 and asked for his resignation.

Redmond refused.

During the June 3 meeting,

RUSS CHAPPELL spoke before an overflow crowd Tuesday night at a District 9 Board of Education meeting. Chappell, head of Local 743 of the American Federation of Teachers, asked the board to reconsider any plans it may have to dismiss Superintendent Max Redmond because it may have a contractual obligation to pay Redmond $55,000 yearly for as many as three years.

board members responded to questions raised by concerned citizens at the May 28 meeting of the Citizens' Advisory Council.

One citizen asked why have a superintendent if the board was going to run the school district.

Melton responded by saying the conflict between the board and Redmond had been magnified by front-page newspaper coverage. Melton alleged newspaper coverage of School Board activities was an attempt to sensationalize and create public hysteria.

"I don't believe we have a hysterical crowd here tonight. I believe you (the crowd) are a concerned group," said board member Jolene Travis-Terrell. "I think we have the potential to be the best School Board with the best superintendent in Illinois."

Council approves contracts

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Four-year contracts for sewerage treatment plant employees and city firefighters were approved 11-1 by the City Council Tuesday night.

The approval eliminates the threat of arbitration between the city and the unions, or a possible strike by employees.

BOTH CONTRACTS provide for a 15 percent raise over four years as follows:

- A 4 percent pay raise retroactive to May 1, 1985.
- A 4 percent raise retroactive to May 1, 1986.
- A 3 percent raise effective May 1, 1987.
- A 4 percent raise effective raise effective May 1, 1988.

The contracts will be up for renegotiation May 1, 1989. "We don't have any major complaints," said George Machino, president and business manager of Operating Engineers Local 525 representing the sewer treatment plant employees.

"It wasn't what we wanted but it was a compromise," he said. "I think both sides walked away satisfied."

THE LOCAL ratified the contract last week. It was brought before the council May 27, but the aldermen deferred action because they had not received a copy of the contract before the meeting.

Since an agreement has been reached, Machino said an unfair labor practice charge his union filed against the city will not be pursued any further. The charge claimed the city had only met with the union once in a year.

"Basically we're very happy with the contract," said Firefighters' Local 253 President Charles Bernaix. "We felt we could get more money, but overall it's a good package."

A PROVISION of the firefighters' contract will incorporate the ambulance department into the fire department, making firefighters out of paramedics. "We feel the firefighter-paramedic concept is a very good concept," Bernaix told the aldermen.

"It's an endeavor to improve service to the city," said 3rd Ward Alderman Brett Hanke, negotiation committee chairman.

"It's going to upgrade both departments and benefit the city," said 7th Ward Alderman Jeff Worthen, negotiations committee member.

BERNAIX SAID a concern he has is the firefighter-paramedic position may cause a shortage of manpower.

"If they haven't got enough manpower, hey, here's one alderman who would vote for more men for our emergency services," said 2nd Ward Alderman Sam Whitmer.

The only council member voting against the contracts was 1st Ward Alderman Casmer Skubish. "I DON'T THINK this 15 percent package deal in the next four years will match our revenue increases," Skubish said. "I think it's a gamble on our part."

Planning, cooperation needed for attracting potential industry

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Planning and cooperation are two important factors that will bring industry to Granite City, it was emphasized Tuesday night.

Carl Mathias, assistant vice president of Illinois Power Co., addressed a meeting June 2 at City Hall of 17 people representing the city, local business and industry, the Granite City Park District, the Granite City School Board and the Tri-Cities Area Chamber of Commerce.

He shared what he learned at a recent meeting in Kansas City, Mo. of the Industrial Development Research Council concerning industrial recruitment.

A CITY NEEDS certain factors industry looks for when locating a plant, he said. These factors include adequate sewers, water, transportation, a skilled work force, a good tax and business climate, competitive utility rates and good educational opportunities.

Before industry decides to locate in a particular city, Mathias said, a group of site locators is sent to investigate the area. He said such a group was sent to Springfield, Tenn., before it was chosen for the construction of General Motors' Saturn plant.

The site locators start by looking at back issues of a city's newspaper to see what the crime rate is like in that area and what kind of image the community portrays, he said.

The investigators also look at the recreational facilities, housing, streets, schools and culture of the community, he said.

THE SITE LOCATORS then walk through the city under investigation and talk to citizens and business representatives.

"They investigate very carefully," Mathias said. "They check out every angle."

He said one way cities can improve their community to make it attractive to industry is through planning and cooperation.

"Every community has its ills," he said, "but if you show them you have a plan to correct it, they're not going to hold that against you."

MATHIAS SAID cooperation is vital for the plan to succeed.

"We don't sit down and discuss our problems, and our goals are the same," he said. "We all take an active role in trying to change what is bad, it's not going to change."

Another important factor in attracting industry is instilling community pride, Mathias said. He believed this could partly be accomplished by city officials.

"Most people look up to the elected officials," he said. "They are looked up for leadership."

Well agreement signed

By Bill Bagby
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — An agreement was signed Tuesday for the first operation of a well which is hoped to ease underground water seepage problems.

The agreement was signed June 3 by Mayor Von Dee Cruse, Nameoki Township Supervisor Harry Briggs Sr. and Metro East Sanitary District Director Walter Greathouse.

A pump will be constructed on property owned by Clarence and Jacqueline Cooper, at a site east of the Maryville Road area and north of the Cloverview residential subdivision.

THE PUMP will remove ground water in an attempt to lower the water table in the area near the property.

"We want to determine if it's feasible to lower the ground water level to preserve basements and sewers in the township and city," said Norm Hall, Nameoki Township trustee.

He said the pump will operate when the ground water level rises enough to cause seepage in the basements of homes.

The three entities will jointly install and maintain the well for one year, effective June 1, Hall said.

EACH ENTITY will pay one-third of the estimated $6,077 cost of installing the pump. Another estimated $4,878 is expected in operating fees during the year.

"I think it will be worthwhile for all of us," Hall said.

"I've been very much for it since its inception," Briggs said. The proposed well is the same one the Army Corps of Engineers utilized in a recent 48-hour test which proved beneficial in lowering the water table, Briggs said.

"WHAT WE CAN benefit out of this and what it's going to cost us, it's a very good project," Cruse said.

A public meeting on the well is scheduled for 7 p.m. Wednesday, June 11, at the Harold Brown Recreation Center, 2165 Amos Ave., Hall said.

The meeting is to explain the operation and purposes of the well to the public, Hall said. A public opinion poll will also be taken to determine public response to the well.

Citizens will have a chance to volunteer as piezometer readers, Hall said.

Alan Crider
Crider drops application

Applause followed the announcement that a controversial application for a district principalship was withdrawn.

School Board member Alan Crider said at the District 9 meeting Tuesday that he would not seek to be Coolidge Junior High School principal.

At the meeting, Crider said he applied for the job because he thought there would be no qualified applicants from within the district. When he saw there were qualified applicants, he said, he decided to withdraw.

Board attorney William Schooley said Crider should have resigned his position before he got involved when asked about a possible conflict of interest.

5 red-faced; cherry soda samples found inside their auto

Many Granite City residents received an unexpected gift left on their doorsteps Friday — free samples of Coca Cola.

However, apparently not everybody found the two cans in a plastic wrapper waiting at the front door when they looked outside or arrived home.

Reports of youths taking some of the free samples in the Lincoln Place area were called to police.

Investigating the calls, an officer noticed a car at Niedringhaus Avenue and Spruce Street and questioned the driver, Robert M. Barnhart, 18, of 2733 W. 22nd St. Although the driver denied knowledge of any such goings-on in the neighborhood, the officer alleged seeing a large quantity of regular and cherry Coke cans in plain sight on the rear floorboard of the vehicle.

Barnhart, two 12-year-old boys and two youths, 15 and 16 years old, were taken to police headquarters and their parents were called.

With the stipulation they were to return the free samples to homes, apologize to the residents there and retrieve all the plastic wrappers from the street, the boys and youths were released without being charged.

Barnhart was charged with theft and contributing to the delinquency of a minor. He was released at 6 p.m. Friday on a notice to appear for a hearing.

Special rules on summer jobs

Students and other young people planning to work during the summer are being asked to note that special rules affect the reporting of earnings from many typical summer jobs for Social Security purposes.

Becoming familiar with the rules can assure that the earnings are reported properly to earn important Social Security protection, a spokesman said this week. Social Security pays disability and survivors benefits on the record of workers who have credit for as little as 18 months of work. Work credits accumulate over the worker's lifetime for retirement benefits. While the amount of work credit determines eligibility for benefits, it's the annual earnings reported that the benefits are figured from, the spokesman added.

With most jobs, Social Security taxes are automatically deducted from the paycheck, and the employer pays a matching amount and reports the total to Social Security.

Many of the types of jobs generally available to summer workers are service jobs (restaurant and hotel work, for example), farm work, or self-employment (sales work, for example).

A person needs to know how to report cash tips, which are a mafor part of many service jobs, when farm work counts for Social Security protection, and how to report self-employment income.

Taxes on tips are paid by the employee only. The employee should give the employer a report of tips he or she received during the month by the 10th of the following month.

The employer reports the tips to Social Security along with other regular wage reports.

Earnings of at least $150 or more in cash from one employer during a calendar year, or cash wages paid on a time basis (by the hour, week etc.) for any part of 20 days or more during a year should be reported. The earnings are reported by the employer as regular wages.

Only self-employment earnings of $400 or more count for Social Security. The income is reported on the worker's federal income tax return, and the tax paid at that time.

People who become involved in any of the above types of summer employment are being urged to call the East St. Louis Social Security office for more details on the rules involved for reporting their earnings.

The number is 482-9430, or if this is a long-distance call, callers may dial the operator and ask for Enterprise 1-555.

American Legion convention here

District 9 begins safety project

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Construction work and renovation at seven District 9 schools is expected to begin later this month.

Rule Construction Co., of Collinsville, was awarded a contract for life safety renovation of Grigsby Junior High School and Parkway, Frohardt and Marshall elementary schools.

Architect's estimates put the cost of the projects at $242,922. Rule bid $180,000 for the work.

The board is expected to award two contracts for work at three district schools to C.D. Peters Construction, of Granite City, said Ronald Landman, director of buildings and grounds.

"We want to get most of the work done this summer, before the kids get back in school," said Landman.

Also slated for completion this summer is the removal of asbestos from pipes and the foyer at Prather Elementary. Asbestos is also expected to be removed from the high school and Cobridge Junior High, Landman said.

Already approved is the replacement of bleachers which collapsed under the weight of a near-capacity crowd at the high school during a basketball game last winter.

Asphalt driveways, toilets for the handicapped, new doors, safety glass and touch-up painting are scheduled for Grigsby Junior High School.

A new door, asphalt parking areas, new glass and touch-up painting are scheduled for Parkway.

Plans are to seal the bus loading driveway, patch and seal parking areas, paint, install six new doors and install safety glass at Frohardt Elementary.

Asphalt parking and play areas will be sealed and a service cul-de-sac will be repaved at Marshall School. Also planned is installation of 16 new doors and 18 new door frames. Walls are to be patched in some areas. Glass will be installed and paint will be touched up.

Henry Gabriel, the architect employed by District 9 to prepare life safety specifications for the projects, has proposed nearly $100,000 in projects for repair of damaged and hazardous parking, drive and play areas at Nidringhaus, Prather and Wilson schools.

"Right now, we're waiting for contractors to sign agreements," Landman said. "We hope to get everything underway as soon as possible."

YMCA day camp at 58-acre site

The Tri-City Area YMCA will begin 10 weeks of day camp starting June 9 and running through Aug. 14. The camp will include seven weeks for six- to 13-year-olds, and three weeks for four- and five-year-olds.

"Day camp is more than a mere babysitting service this year," Bob Slate, "Y" program director, said.

"We are taking the kids to a 58-acre camp this year. It includes a 14-acre lake for fishing and canoeing, a sand beach for swimming, and camp and picnic grounds."

"There are two obstacle courses, lighted tennis courts, three softball fields, volleyball and basketball courts, and lots of wooded area for nature study. This year, the emphasis is on camping in day camp."

Speech, language

The Easter Seal Society will again provide speech and language therapy services for children and for adults of all ages throughout the summer months, beginning the week of June 23 and continuing for eight weeks.

Therapy sessions will be held at the Easter Seal center, 612 State

The group will travel to the campsite each Monday through Thursday, and will go on a field trip on Fridays. There are also two Cardinal baseball games planned.

"We will pay for the admission to the ball game for any child who attends at least one week of camp," Slate said.

The camp schedule is as follows, with the Friday field trip listed with the corresponding week:

Week I, June 9-13 — St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame and Busch Stadium tour.

Week II, June 16-20 — Granite City Public Library.

Week III, June 23-27 — Grant's Farm.

Week IV, July 1-11 — St. Elizabeth Medical Center.

Week V, July 14-18 — St. Louis Zoo and the Planetarium.

Week VI, July 21-25 — Police and Fire Stations and the Post Office.

Week VII, Aug. 4-8 — Six Flags over Mid-America.

Three weeks of "kiddie camp" are scheduled for June 30-July 2, July 28-30 and Aug. 11-13. "Kiddie camp" emphasizes learning through songs and games, and will be for a half-day only, three days a week.

Day camp is held from 8 a.m. to 5 p.m. The fee is $35 per week for YMCA members for the first child, and half-price for each additional child.

Non-member fee is $45 per week for the first child, and half-price for each additional child.

The Six Flags trip will cost the group rate for admission.

For further information, the YMCA may be contacted at 876-7200.

and those needing the services are being urged to apply for enrollment regardless of ability to pay.

Since the therapy schedule has a limited number of openings available, those interested should contact the Easter Seal Society as soon as possible by calling 877-7800, a spokesman said.

Granite City BPW wins state membership award

The 65th annual state convention of the Illinois Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, held at the Chicago Marriott O'Hare Hotel, was attended by 11 members of the Granite City BPW.

At the awards banquet the Granite City BPW organization received the membership award for best overall membership program for clubs with a membership of 75 and under. Rose Stern, local membership chairman, accepted the honor from Betty Kelley, state membership chairman.

Becky Slate, local BPW president, served as hostess for the evening.

The national representative to the convention was LaVerne Collins of Anchorage, Alaska, treasurer of the National Federation of BPW and treasurer of the Foundation.

Sue Urban of the Collinsville BPW was convention chairman and presided at the installation banquet. Guest speaker was Muriel Bach, who spoke on "Freud Never Said It Was Easy."

Annellen Smith, past state president and past president of the Granite City BPW, installed the 1986-87 officers.

They include President Nancy Clark of Clay County; President-Elect Sonja Charness, Northwest BPW; First Vice President Deborah Hicks, Newton BPW; Second Vice President Judith Bredweg, Southwest Suburban BPW; Recording Secretary Christine LaFrance of Oak Brook BPW; Treasurer Donna Turigbatto, Joliet BPW; and the chairman of nominations, Reva Samuels of Bureau Valley BPW.

Annabel Woodring, president of the federation, presided at all sessions and there was a total registration of 638 BPW members. She announced the 1986-87 state convention will be held in Springfield.

Other delegates from the Granite City club were Lil Marzluft, Hazel Rollins, Jeanne Hornberger, Carol Buehler, Loren Sadrukula, Katie Thomason, Lisa Fanning and Sylvia Wright.

Pen Women will open art, letters contests to public

Granite City resident Dee Raby, president of the Illinois State Association, National League of American Pen Women, conducted the first board meeting of the 1986-88 biennium in Belleville. Eight members of the state board attended. Purpose of the session was to initiate plans for the Oct. 2-3, 1987, state meeting to be held at the Collinsville Hilton.

Included in the plans are the usual state contests in letters, art and, perhaps, music. The board members voted to open the contests to the general public, with entry fees set at $5 for a single entry or $3 each for two or more entries in any category. Contest rules will be publicized later.

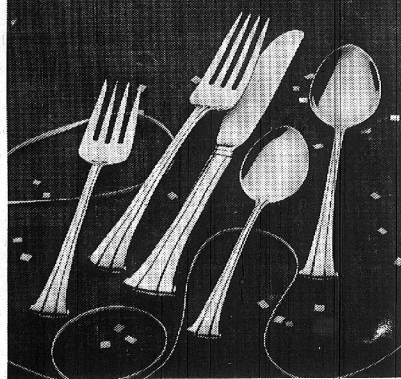

Other officers present at the planning session were Deborah Purviance, secretary; Dr. Elizabeth Oelrich, treasurer; Carolyn Chapman, letters chairman; and Carol Warner, historian, all of Belleville; Brenda Sprague, hospitality chairman, Carbondale; Helen Church, publicity chairman, Lebanon; and Eileen Mears, retiring president, Springfield.

The NLAAPW is a professional organization of writers, artists and composers of music. Membership is by written application and approval by a local branch and the national league.

Further information on membership may be obtained by enclosing a stamped and self-addressed envelope with a request mailed to Dee Raby, 2319 State St., Granite City 62040.

Citizens to discuss school board

District 9 School Board problems have dominated headlines in Granite City during the past several weeks.

The board is suing a fellow board member and he's suing back, the board is thought to be holding public discussions behind closed doors, its hiring have been questioned, its decisions not to follow recommendations of the district superintendent have been criticized, a board member filed to be a principal and then withdrew, and the district's accreditation status may be in danger — without accreditation, getting into any college will be tough for the district's students.

Indications are that the problems will remain. Perhaps that's why a meeting has been called for 7 p.m. on Thursday, June 12, at the Granite City Township building.

The meeting is for all in District 9 who want to discuss their thoughts about the School Board. It will be a forum that will explain what the problems are and, perhaps, recommendations will be made to solve the problems.

With the future of education at stake, it is time the people got together to learn firsthand just exactly what is happening in Granite City School District 9.

The board is only serving itself

Criticism of Granite City School District 9 Superintendent Max Redmond comes from the board.

Only the board. From the public, all we've heard are good words for Redmond. Which leads us back to a question we often raise.

Just who is this School Board serving? It can't be the public being served because the public backs Redmond. This means they favor the way he's trying to do his job. That means they'd prefer the School Board put him on the back rather than kick him in the pants for his decisions. Since the public likes Redmond, it can't be that the public is being served by the board. Which leads us to ask again:

Just who is this School Board serving? It can't be school district employees who are being served because they back Redmond. At a recent tea, more than 400 employees demonstrated their appreciation for Redmond with a standing ovation. It's doubtful many school boards can say their employees are so happy with their superintendent, but this School Board can say there's support among employees for Redmond. Which inevitably returns us to the question:

Just who is this School Board serving? Complaints about Redmond seem to come from only one source, that being the School Board itself. They forget the public supports Redmond. They forget the employees support Redmond. The majority of the School Board is in agreement that if Redmond doesn't do what they tell him, then he's not the man for the job in Granite City.

Again, consider the question: Just who is this School Board serving?

Board afraid to let us hear them

The pressure on the Granite City District 9 School Board must be getting tougher to bear.

The board met in executive session, partly to discuss an article that appeared in this newspaper. They made us leave the meeting.

Rarely, in the recollection of our staff members, has this newspaper been barred from an executive session of the board.

But never before has this newspaper so strongly reported on the controversial issues that have been plaguing this school district. Never before has this newspaper stood up and opposed what we believe to be very serious problems in the district's governance.

So the School Board reporter was barred from the executive session meeting and perhaps that will be future policy so long as that board controls this school district.

In our opinion, the last vestige of an attempt to make the public feel they could have confidence in this board was lost when the door closed behind us on the way out of the closed-door meeting.

In our opinion, their discussion about this newspaper in closed session is precisely why the press should be in such meetings. The discussion, we believe, violated the Illinois Open Meetings Act. Though not professing to be lawyers, no stipulation in the act appears to allow for the discussion about this paper except in public session.

It is our opinion the closed-door discussion of our newspaper by the board adds credence to the position of one of its own members that the board has been violating the act.

County deserves representative

Madison County taxpayers are helping to pay the way for Belleville Area College, but they have no representation from this area on the board.

There's something wrong with that, especially since such a significant part of the college district, Granite City Campus, is here in Madison County.

Due to the resignation of Pat Bartsokas from the board, an opening exists on the BAC Board of Trustees.

St. Clair County Board Chairman Jerry Costello, recognizing the inequity of having no Madison County representation on the college board, has come out in favor of seeing the position filled by someone from this county.

Costello's admirable suggestion should be heeded by the board, and an outstanding nominee for the appointment would be Avery Schermer.

Schermer lost in the last election. An entire slate from St. Clair County, which has more voters, was voted in. Schermer's six years of experience on the board, his strong efforts on behalf of getting the Granite City Campus started and his life-long residency in this area make him worthy of appointment.

Schermer would make a good board member, but aside from that, Costello's advocacy for appointing a Madison County representative is indicative of a greater problem.

BAC lies in a seven-county area. Outlying areas pay taxes, but no one from those areas has much hope of being elected to the board. Based on numbers, St. Clair County can continue to elect full slates.

There is a possible solution to the problem, one advocated by Schermer: Rather than at-large elections that result in persons elected from one area, the state legislature might consider forming political subdivisions for the district: three board positions in St. Clair County due to the tax money it provides, two from Madison County, and two elected at-large from among the five other counties the district reaches.

The result of heeding Costello's recommendation would be to achieve some semblance of balance.

His idea should be built upon so that a long-term solution will be developed to alleviate the problem of only St. Clair Countians representing a seven-county area.

C.B. Woodward, Granite City

"City services are average. The street department could fill up the potholes and patch the curbs. I've had a bad curb in front of my house for five years and I can't get them to do anything about it."

Are city services OK?

How would you rate the services being provided by the city and are there any areas that could be improved?

Dorothy McCormick, Granite City

"Good, considering the size of the town and how broke we usually are. The only thing I know is some of our streets are bad."

Don Edwards, Granite City

"Pretty good. I'd say they're adequate, but there are a lot of vacant houses around town, many with high weeds around them, that should be taken care of."

Redmond cuts costs, expands service

To the editor:

For six months I have attended all board meetings, several Citizens Advisory Committee meetings, and a policy meeting and have voiced my questions and concerns openly. My inquiries were raised from an informational standpoint, but were met with mistrust and open hostility.

The School Board president has asked the superintendent to resign. Let's analyze why this action was taken——The board cannot criticize the $321,776 in new grant monies our district received this year.

—The board cannot criticize the teacher incentive program that has saved the district money and kept continuity in the classrooms.

—The board cannot criticize the workshops and additional inservice programs held this year.

—The board cannot criticize the increased teacher morale and the teachers claim that this year got off to the best start that can be remembered.

—The board cannot criticize the workshops and additional inservice programs held this year, years, that are being formulated.

—The board cannot criticize the increased teacher morale and the teachers' claim that this year got off to the best start that can be remembered.

—The board cannot criticize the district's assertive discipline program which is proposed to take effect in the fall.

—And the board cannot criticize the superintendent's recommendations on the basis of financial considerations, for his have been most cost-efficient.

What they are criticizing is the fact that the superintendent does not do as they wish and in turn makes them look bad.

I think we are paying the superintendent to do just what he is doing, a good job of supervising the education of our students.

The board has not apologized for any of their actions; they only regret that we know about them. And, of course, they criticize the superintendent for this.

As far as I can see the superintendent is doing his job; he is continually trying to better the educational climate for our students. His recommendations have been cost-effective and yet expansive, with the kids as the primary focus.

The School Board feels it serves the best interest of the community, but I think they are serving themselves. The district consists of the teachers, who strive to see our children succeed, the mothers who oversee the homework, the fathers who help with the science projects, and both parents who listen to 100 or more books a year and attend sporting events.

Band together, parents, teachers and students, to let the School Board members know how you feel. This is our district.

No one can change the past, but we can strive for a brighter future. Our school system is a key element in the economic forecast of our area.

Please don't let our children be the victims, and decreased property values the result of the School Board's retaliatory actions against one another.

Stand together and be heard, or else there will be no one to blame but ourselves.

'No pass, no play' proposed in state

To the editor:

The Illinois Senate Elementary and Secondary Education committee has approved Senate Bill 1522, the so-called "no pass, no play" bill, with amendments.

The bill would prohibit high school students who are failing a required course at the end of a grading period from competing in sports or taking part in interscholastic activities for four weeks. The bill was expanded to include interscholastic activities in the committee.

Representatives of the Illinois High School Association have argued that such legislation will take away the motivation for students to improve, thus increasing the dropout rate.

However, those in favor of the measure argue the bill would encourage high schools which "rate trophies over learning" to re-evaluate their priorities.

Senate Bill 1516, which requires public universities and community colleges to establish programs to ensure that classroom instructors possess oral proficiency in English, also passed the Illinois Senate Committee on Elementary and Secondary Education.

SB 1516, an attempt to encourage institutions to establish programs upgrading the oral English skills of their instructors, does not imply that students at our institutions of higher learning are not getting the best education possible, but will ensure that every instructor is proficient in the English language so that his or her ability to teach is not impaired.

The committee also approved: SB 1704. This bill accelerates state aid payments by one month for each of the next two years and makes permanent changes in the payment schedule for state fiscal year 1989.

SB 1705. Makes revisions in current law concerning exemptions from physical education by explicitly authorizing boards of education to establish policies for excusing juniors and seniors from physical education.

SB 1852. Delays by three years the implementation of the Board of Higher Education's college admissions requirements.

SB 2164. Establishes a system of grants to public agencies for the prevention of teen suicide. The Residential Services Authority, created by SB 1056 approved in 1985, held its fourth meeting on May 9.

The Authority is attempting to develop a process to settle disputes among agencies relative to the placement of and funding for children with exceptional needs.

SEN. SAM VADALABENE

Sees moral issue in license limit

To the editor:

I am writing the City Council of Granite City as follows:

Congratulations on your vote to cap Granite City liquor licenses. I commend your action. I want to thank 1st Ward Alderman Casner Skubish for his voiced opinion on protecting the small businesses.

However, Mr. Skubish, I was an independent contractor in this city and would like to know if you fought against the Illinois Roofing Licensing Act, which literally destroyed small businessmen such as myself.

I tell all of you council members that "free enterprise" is a direct enemy of the true church of God. Examine carefully the comment of Richard Hamilton of the Kroger Co.: "As far as we're concerned, it's not a moral issue. In our opinion, it's an issue of free enterprise."

Written proof: The church of God says, "Free enterprise can be a direct threat to Christian people." Do we want morality to prevail, or free enterprise to prevail?

Do we want Christian morals or worldly morals?

WILLIAM A. DALTON

Educator has improved GC schools

To the editor:
Three years ago, our school board chose to try to get our school system back in shape by closing several schools. Not only were many excellent teachers out of jobs, but also our already crowded classrooms became more crowded.
Teachers qualified to teach one grade or subject were suddenly transferred to other areas, many times unhappy themselves with their new assignment.
However, the worst part was that, in the end, it was our children who suffered the most. Overcrowding resulted not only in frustrated teachers and children, but also in increased behavior problems.
Several teachers stated they were so busy handling discipline problems they didn't have much time to teach the rest of the children.
As a result, with a few exceptions, the individual attention that so many children need was, and remains, practically non-existent. Children who made halfway decent grades suddenly developed an apathetic attitude and, as a result, their grades fell.

Then, in walks Dr. Max Redmond as superintendent, hired because of his qualifications.
Here we have a man who sincerely believes in the children of today, who sincerely believes that every child is good, that you must not give up on any child, and who sincerely is trying to make Granite City schools once again the outstanding school system they once were. I'm not saying that everything he says or suggests is the solution to our problem, but for the sake of our children, let's give him a chance.
If the school board cannot work with him and let him do the job he was hired to do, then it's time for the board members to resign and let someone else try.
We voted these people in because we trusted them. I, for one, am not only disappointed, but I'm also angry at what appears to be political maneuvering on the part of the school board during the last few weeks.

Let's unite and back Dr. Redmond for the good of our future leaders. Let's set some good examples for the children so that, when they grow up, they can proudly say once again, "I'm glad I went to school in Granite City." How many children can say that today?
Let's call Dr. Redmond, talk to him, make an appointment to see him. I've talked to him personally on a few occasions and found him to be genuinely friendly and caring and totally interested in our children's welfare.
But he can only do so much by himself. It's time to practice the old saying, "United we stand, divided we fall."
I think I speak for many people when I say, "We support you, Dr. Redmond, we need you, but most of all, our children need you!"

Thinks Melton should leave the board

To the editor:
In regard to the recent article concerning the school board and Dr. Redmond, it seems as though Dewey Melton thinks he can be a full-time employee of IBM, a school board member, a back room politician, and now branch out to be "acting" superintendent of our school district.
A study of his years as a school board member indicates to me he wants power, and is a "little" big spender, all in the guise of better education.
I think in these last few months he has revealed himself clearly.

He wants power.
One who states they are going to demote the superintendent of schools to a principal — and doesn't even know when the moves are to be made by, in this case April 1, doesn't deserve to even sit on the board, let alone be the president of the board.
In his five months of "leadership" the board has gone backward 40 years with "Mayor Daley politics."
I commend Dr. Redmond for being his own man, and for doing a fine job as our superintendent of schools.

I also suggest that it would be in the best interest of all taxpayers, the board, the teachers, and all the administrative staff if Mr. Melton not only gave up the presidency but completely resigned from the board.
As far as this taxpayer is concerned, he no longer has any credibility, even for a vote on the board to purchase pencils.
One must wonder what one gets for serving as a "free" public servant on the board.

Board ignores public's needs, wishes

To the editor:
I am a concerned citizen and parent who is very unhappy about the recent decisions that have been made by our school board.
The total disregard for the parents' feelings on issues that directly affect our children's futures is inexcusable.
These seven so-called "public servants" seem to feel that they are an all-knowing governing body which can, in most cases, totally disregard the taxpayers' interests.
I was under the impression that these school board members were elected by us to voice our opinions on the various issues. Evidently, this is not the case.

The school board continues to act independently, disregarding the recommendations made by the superintendent and also disregarding the opinion of the public.
We must, as concerned citizens and parents, band together to have our wants and needs recognized and not be totally ignored and who do not care.
This district belongs to the parents, teachers and students and not to a select few who seem to think they know what's best for us. At election time, we will remember those who have chosen to better the education of our students instead of furthering their own interests.

Citizens will speak on school issues conflicts June 12 at Township Hall

To the editor:
I have watched, with great interest, the recent activities of our local school board.
Knowing the low point that our district was at before the passage of the bond issue, I was quite pleased to see the progress in morale that has occurred here, both inside the district and outside in the community.
It is my belief, and the belief of others, that this progress can continue under the leadership of a qualified superintendent like the one we now have. It seems, however, that our school board does not agree.
There appears to be a conflict between the superintendent and the board that threatens the progress that many of us have hoped for.
With these thoughts in mind, a group of us whose names appear below are asking you, the public, to come to the Township Hall on Thursday, June 12, at 7 p.m.

We will at that time hold a public forum with an opportunity for any concerned citizen to speak. We hope to create an organization that will speak for the "silent majority" of voters in Granite City who have thus far been unable to voice their opinions in an appropriate way.
We further hope to select an active course of action to promote these opinions and let the "will of the people" be known.
Make sure to tell your friends about the meeting, for the larger the crowd, the larger the voice.
We can no longer afford to watch things happen, but must be willing to put out effort to make them happen.

Mack or Vickie Johnson or Mary Solomon.

Venice accepted into school insurance co-op

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

VENICE — District 3 has been accepted into a school district insurance cooperative consisting of five other Madison County districts. Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers said Friday.

"I received a call just yesterday that we have been accepted," the administrator said. "The cooperative are Granite City, Collinsville, Edwardsville, Alton and Wood River. Arthur J. Gallagher & Co. of St. Louis is helping to set up the pool."

The Venice School Board was informed earlier this month the district's policy with American States Insurance Co. would be cancelled June 15.

The firm handles all insurance for the district's liability, buildings, fire and vehicle insurance.

"I've called Jim Henderson at Leaders Agency to see if we can get a 15-day extension (with the present insurance firm) to carry us until July 1," Vickers said.

Henderson was successful last year in securing a policy from American States covering District 3, but only for a one-year period.

At last week's board meeting, the superintendent was unable to say whether a district as small as Venice would be accepted into the cooperative pool. But, he was hopeful.

"If it makes no substantial difference, I think they (co-op members) will accept us," he reported to the board.

"Going into the pool will mean a board member from each member district, will be my recommendation that if we can be accepted, we should do it," Vickers said to board members.

Although complete information on the co-op insurance was not available last week, Vickers said a $150 million policy per occurrence exceeds the district's current policy limitations.

A $3,000 DEDUCTIBLE is specified, he said. The administrator said Friday the insurance cooperative's board of directors, made up of the superintendent of schools and a board member from each member district, will meet June 4 at the Edwardsville School Board office.

The question of insurance played a significant part in a discussion at the May 22 meeting when board members tried to resolve a request from the Venice Park Board to use school district buses.

THE BUSES were to be utilized for field trips sponsored by the park district during the summer months.

Use of school buses for a trip to Busch Stadium on June 10 was approved. Permission for the seven remaining trips was withheld until a certificate of insurance from the park district is received.

A proposed park district excursion to the Meramec Caverns in Missouri, using District 3 buses, was vetoed by the board as "beyond our usual 30-mile limit."

BOARD MEMBER Pat King questioned also where responsibility lies should a bus break down while on a park district trip.

"I think it is important they (park district) understand it is their responsibility should anything happen," Board President Wilbert Glasper said.

The Venice Park District also has joined an insurance cooperative. Suburban Risk Management Insurance, composed of 56 Illinois park districts.

An insurance package covering all aspects of the district went into effect June 1.

BATHROOM HOW-TO FOR HOMEOWNERS

When Home Gets Too Big, Convert Bathroom to a Spa

It happens all the time. The kids grow up and go and suddenly you find the old house is too big. But you don't want to leave the neighborhood. What do you do? One possibility is to do what thousands of others do in similar circumstances. They change the house to fit their own needs for this later stage in life.

In this stage you find you still have the same tiny bathroom, but you have extra bedrooms.

You also have a new emphasis in your life. You want to keep fit. The answer for many has been to remodel, combining space and merging the tiny bathroom into one of the adjacent extra bedrooms to create a home spa with exercise equipment, sauna, steam bath and whirlpool tub.

You gain great new space and an exhilarating new livability. And, depending on the house, you might even be able to open your new fitness studio to the outdoors with skylights and a greenhouse window or two.

This can be better even than the famed Roman baths of centuries ago. Those famous baths served the same functions, but they didn't in public. You would retain your privacy while bathing and exercising in splendor.

And, after all these years, don't you deserve it? Come visit us soon, and let's discuss the possibilities.

Many vehicles tested—but half ignoring it

The "Air Team" formed by the Illinois Environmental Protection Agency has enrolled 44,636 "members." On May 1, the EPA began a program to test motor vehicle emissions of 2.4 million cars in the Chicago metropolitan area and the western portion of Madison and St. Clair counties.

During May, 44,636 were tested. Of the vehicles tested, 37,780 passed on their first try and 6,756 failed the inspection.

"When a vehicle fails the inspection, the vehicle owner is required to repair the car so that it meets emissions standards," said IEPA Director Richard J. Carlson. The percentage of cars which failed the test is what we had anticipated.

The Air Team program got off to a successful start, Carlson said. The only major problem he cited was a "bug" in the computer software which unintentionally mailed out 10,000 test notices to individuals in areas which were exempt from the program requirements.

Also, he conceded, the 44,636 cars and trucks tested through May 31 were only about half of the 90,000 that were expected to be tested.

Frank Sherman, Air Team program manager, said, "This number was significantly lower than we expected for May."

"We hope this situation changes so crowding does not occur later in the program."

"We strongly encourage motorists to bring their cars in during this lull period so that they can avoid any inconvenience caused by long lines," Sherman said.

The Air Team approach is designed to reduce vehicle emissions of hydrocarbons and carbon monoxide in the metropolitan Chicago and Metro East areas, where air quality standards have not been met.

At this time, seven test stations are open in the Chicago area. The eight remaining stations planned there will continue to open throughout the summer.

All three stations are open in the Metro East area, including one on East Chain of Rocks Road west of Illinois 111.

The legislation which mandated IEPA to operate this program (Public Act 83-1477) was passed in 1964 after the federal government threatened to withhold over $100 million in highway construction funds.

The Illinois Department of Transportation estimates $130 million would be lost for 1986-87 if the program stopped and the federal government imposed sanctions against the state.

Some Illinois legislators have endorsed ending the tests, but immediate repeal is considered unlikely.

Summer activities for Venice youth

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

A basketball camp, arts and crafts projects and other special activities, including use of the new water slide at reduced cost, are planned this summer for children and teenagers living in the Venice Park District.

Venice youngsters and teens between the ages of 6 and 18 are invited to register now for the summer recreation and food program which starts Monday, June 9.

REGISTRATIONS are being accepted from 8 a.m. until 1:30 p.m. each day at the Venice Recreation Center, 323 Broadway.

Anna Claggett, president of the Venice Park Board, said today the free program is open to all Venice youngsters.

"We feel this will be a great summer and we hope our activities will be enjoyed by all children," the board president said.

TWO NEW SEGMENTS have been added to this year's recreational activities, Claggett announced. Varsity Coach Clinton Harris of Venice High School will conduct a basketball camp, beginning June 23, as part of the sports program.

All children registering for the recreational activities also will be allowed to utilize the new water slide in Lee Park. The facility is scheduled to open this month.

A REDUCED FEE of $1 per day will be charged program participants wishing to enjoy the water slide from 10 a.m. until noon, Monday through Thursday.

With the arrival of warmer weather, Granite City Postmaster Larry Wood has asked dog owners to help protect letter carriers, utility workers and other citizens from the dangers of dog bites.

The postmaster said that, nationally, more than 5,000 letter carriers were bitten by dogs last year. Wood added that those statistics included injuries to 20 Granite City letter carriers.

"In recent years, the public has responded to our plea to keep their pets restrained, and we have seen a decline in bites nationally," Wood said. "Nevertheless, much is still to be done to eliminate the hazard to our employees and other citizens who might be bitten."

Wood said all dogs are territorial by nature, and even the most gentle pet will bite if it feels its domain is threatened by the presence of a carrier or other person. "With a little care, a pet owner can protect our carriers, and his or her pet and pocketbook, too," he said.

The Postal Service protects its carriers from dog bite hazards. Among remedies in situations when a pet owner fails to restrain a dog is interruption of home

Public use of the slide will not start until after the carefully supervised session for children is over, the park board president said.

A date for the public opening of the water slide is expected to be announced within the next two weeks.

EIGHT FIELD excursions, including trips to St. Louis Baseball Cardinals games at Busch Stadium, are on the summer activity schedule, said Charles Collins, Venice recreation director.

Bus transportation will be provided registered youngsters, he added.

The Venice Park District also will participate in the Summer Food Service Program with free meals made available to all children, 18 years old and under.

A MIDDAY MEAL will be served Monday through Friday in the Venice Schools cafeteria.

Children interested in enrolling for the summer meals should call Monday through Friday in the park district office at 323 Broadway.

In accordance with federal law, these meals are being made available to all eligible participants without regard to race, color, national origin, handicap or age.

Any person who believes he or she has been discriminated against in any United States Department of Agriculture activity should write immediately to the Secretary of Agriculture, Washington, D. C. 20252.

Owners asked to restrain pets and protect postmen

With the arrival of warmer weather, Granite City Postmaster Larry Wood has asked dog owners to help protect letter carriers, utility workers and other citizens from the dangers of dog bites.

The postmaster said that, nationally, more than 5,000 letter carriers were bitten by dogs last year. Wood added that those statistics included injuries to 20 Granite City letter carriers.

"In recent years, the public has responded to our plea to keep their pets restrained, and we have seen a decline in bites nationally," Wood said. "Nevertheless, much is still to be done to eliminate the hazard to our employees and other citizens who might be bitten."

Wood said all dogs are territorial by nature, and even the most gentle pet will bite if it feels its domain is threatened by the presence of a carrier or other person. "With a little care, a pet owner can protect our carriers, and his or her pet and pocketbook, too," he said.

The Postal Service protects its carriers from dog bite hazards. Among remedies in situations when a pet owner fails to restrain a dog is interruption of home delivery to the residence or, in some cases, to entire neighborhoods.

"The Postal Service will also seek to recover worker's compensation damages and it provides counseling to carriers who have been bitten and who wish to seek legal action against the dog owners."

Wood said these policies underscore the Postal Service's commitment to protect its employees, and added that pet owners can easily meet their responsibilities to control their pets.

"We suggest pets be kept away from the mailbox and areas the letter carrier uses for access to the property," he said. "If the pet cannot be kept behind a secure fence, the owner should restrain it with a secure leash or tether or at least keep the pet inside the house during the usual hours carriers are making their rounds."

"We try to do our part by stressing awareness of dog bite dangers to our carriers, but we rely heavily on the support and cooperation of the community to help us end these painful and costly injuries."

Benefit barbecue held by Phoenix

MADISON — A benefit barbecue will be held for the Phoenix Crisis Center, which provides shelter to this area's battered women.

The fund-raiser will start at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 7. It will be held at 908 Madison Ave., near G&G Car Wash and Family Furniture in Madison.

A $2 donation will purchase a pork steak sandwich. A $3 donation will purchase a pork steak dinner, baked beans, and a choice of slaw or potato salad.

Tickets for the event are being sold by friends and volunteers of the Phoenix Crisis Center.

For more information about the event, or to receive help, call 451-1008.

Army equipment, drills at Carlyle

On Saturday, June 7, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m., personnel and equipment from each branch of the armed forces will be present at the Carlyle Lake visitor center in the Dam West Recreation Area.

They will bring with them an assortment of hardware and displays, such as a 20-foot floating aircraft carrier, the Army's portable computer, an Army truck, an M-60 machine gun, M-16 rifles, and an Air Force video.

Also present will be three rifle platoons which will perform a tactical training exercise in an area near the visitor center at 1 p.m.

In addition, each service will have a static display featuring its activities and opportunities for service.

It will be the sixth annual Armed Forces Day observance at Carlyle Lake.

Slides taken on her recent trip to Nicaragua will be shown by Joyce Schrader of Granite City at 7:30 tonight at the First Federal Savings and Loan Building, 300 St. Louis Ave., Edwardsville.

Schrader, a member of Church Women United of the Quad-City Area, will address the International Women's Organization of Southern Illinois University at Edwardsville at its meeting tonight.

The public is invited to hear Schrader, who traveled to Nicaragua with Mrs. Marion Pierson, also of Granite City, as part of a team representing the International Council of Women United.

Members of the International Women's Organization serve as host families to students attending SIUE from foreign countries.

Special activities and home visits also are arranged to familiarize the students with customs and traditional holidays observed in the United States, said Jacqueline Cooper of Granite City, IWO president.

Teen weight loss classes

Dieting has become a way of life for many teens. But frequently, the 10 pounds they lose in two weeks are back two weeks later.

This summer, St. Elizabeth Medical Center will offer a weight loss program for youths ages 13 to 19, designed to help them improve their looks and their self-image.

The program, which will be held on Tuesdays, beginning June 10, from 10:30 to 11:30 a.m. at SEMC, is not concerned with fast weight loss, but with sensible habit changes.

"The ACTION plan for Young People, developed by Home economist Francine Berg, is based on sound principles of nutrition and behavior modification. The goals are positive and mostly pleasurable, and the aim is to take food out of the center of life and place one's focus on more interesting, worthwhile pursuits," a spokesman said.

"The program will show teens how they can lose weight without ever missing a meal, teach them why regular exercise is essential to losing weight, and present to them how developing their creative talents and volunteering time can help them shed unneeded pounds."

The program, taught by a registered dietitian, is $25 for the full 12 weeks. Parking is free.

For more information or to register, the number is 738-3592.

Bible school set to begin Monday

Vacation Bible School at Victory Pentecostal Church of God, 2601 Cayuga St., will begin Monday, June 9, and end Friday, June 13.

A session for children from kindergarten age through 13 will be conducted from 6 to 8 p.m. each day.

Different activities and programs are planned for each night, the pastor said.

Demolition sought

GRANITE CITY — The Granite City Council unanimously passed resolutions Tuesday night providing for demolition or repair of three houses in the city.

The residences, located at 753 N. 27th Place, 2552 Washington Ave. and 2542 Sheridan Ave., have all been deemed dangerous and unsafe by city building inspector John Jakich.

A written notice will be sent to the owners of the homes and the city will apply for a court order to have the buildings demolished or repaired, unless demolition or repair is made within 15 days of receipt of the notice.

The resolutions were introduced by 2nd Ward Alderman Sam Whitmer, ordinance committee chairman.

Parents may request attendance waivers

By Bill Milligan

GRANITE CITY — Due to a change in District 9 admission regulations, the school board has adopted a policy for waiver of age requirements.

Mandated by the State Board of Education, students must be five years of age before Nov. 1 to enter kindergarten in the next school year.

Previous admission regulations set Dec. 1 as the cutoff date for children entering kindergarten and first grade, and before that Dec. 31.

Cutoff date will be rolled back one month each of the next three years until the final date is established Sept. 1, 1988.

A child must be five years of age before Nov. 1 to enter kindergarten in 1986. In 1987, registration will be cut off Oct. 1. In 1988, the cutoff date will be Sept. 1.

The policy was revised to conform with state laws which require adherence to the Sept. 1, 1988, cutoff.

Because the new policy causes parents with children already enrolled in preschool classes a potential hardship, elementary education director Richard Brinkoff asked the School Board to institute a waiver policy.

School officials adopted the waiver policy May 20.

To qualify for the waiver, students' birthdates must be no more than one month prior to state guidelines already stated.

Children born between Nov. 1 and Dec. 1, 1981, will be eligible for the waiver during the 1986-87 school year. Children born between Oct. 1 and Nov. 1, 1982, will be eligible for waivers during the 1987-88 school year.

Children born between Sept. 1 and Oct. 1, 1983, will be eligible for the waiver during the 1988-89 school year.

Beginning with the 1989-90 school year, no exceptions will be made. Other eligibility requirements have been stipulated by the board. They include an assessment of the child's ability to succeed in school by principals and teachers.

Also included is passage of a test which proves the child has a developmental age of at least five years at time of kindergarten registration.

For more information about the waivers, families may contact Richard Brinkoff at the School District offices located at 20th and Adams streets, or call 876-6600.

Madison secretaries are honored at dinner

The Madison High School Chapter of Future Secretaries held its awards banquet for the 1985-86 school year in the conference room at Ralph and Charlie's Restaurant in Madison.

Lee Ashby, one of the sponsors of the Madison chapter, recognized the members who had been active in National Honor Society, class officers, Student Council, yearbook and other organizations on campus. He also called to the attention of the members that every FSA officer had been on the honor roll at least once during the year and that the valedictorian of the senior class, Gladys Bailey, is a member of FSA. The members were commended for their participation in the activities at Madison High.

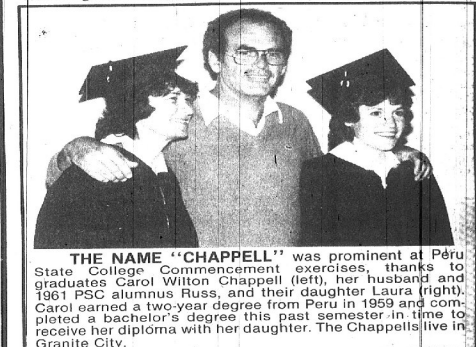

Ashby reminded the members of the valuable educational programs that were a part of the 1985-86 regular meetings. The programs included: Early Cancer

Detection, Illinois Law and Sexual Abuse, Personal Grooming and the Personal Interview, Sex Equity and the Business Office, and a Computer Program on Career Exploration.

Mrs. Beverly Taylor and Twila Edmonds from the Tri City Chapter of Professional Secretaries International spoke to the members about the benefits of FSA and encouraged the senior members to think about becoming a member of the parent organization (PSI).

Mrs. Beverly Imming, a sponsor of the Madison chapter, introduced Cheryl Lewis, the winner of the senior award for 1985-86, and a $25 award was given to her by Taylor.

Imming presented the junior award to Kimberly Gleaton. The senior runner-up, Nena Morrow, also was recognized.

By Valerie Evenden
Staff writer

Forty-three young men and women received their diplomas at commencement exercises held Monday night at Venice High School.

Special honors were accorded Patrice Ingram, valedictorian of the 1986 graduating class, and Jane Treadway, salutatorian. Both are members of the National Honor Society.

PEGGY L. LECOMTE, a teacher in the Gifted Program at Rock Junior High School in East St. Louis, gave the commencement address.

The graduates entered the high school gymnasium to the music of "Aide March" by Verdi. Musical selections also were presented by the Male Chorus of Mount Nebo Missionary Baptist Church.

The Rev. Dr. Rodney J. Howlett of Canaan Galilee Missionary Baptist Church offered the invocation.

KAREN MOSBY, 1986 Class president, welcomed the large number of parents, friends, school officials and faculty gathered for the occasion.

Greetings were extended by Superintendent of Schools Robert N. Vickers.

Venice High Principal John Rush announced the winners of special awards and presented Patrice Ingram, who gave the valedictory address.

CONGRATULATIONS were offered by Wilbert Gasper, president of the Venice Board of Education, who presented diplomas to the graduates.

Graduating seniors, who also are members of the National Honor Society, include Karen Mosby, Chanté Bradley, Anthony Greer and Avis Wiley.

Receiving their high school diplomas were those named and Virgil Barbee, Tina Bradley, Quinita Butler, Kimberly Corley, Cheryl Coulter, Patrice Dillon, Yuri Foster, Robert Glover, Terri Godfrey, Joe Green, Valencia Hill, Michael Hogan, Parris Hollis, Karen Houltz, Napoleon Jacks, Wendy King, Judious Kizeart, Harold Koelker III, Russell Li-

Theresa Gwasdac graduates at SLU

Theresa Ann Gwasdac graduated May 17 in commencement exercises at St. Louis University. She received a degree in physical therapy and was named to the Dean's List.

The daughter of Bernard and Louise Gwasdac of Granite City, she has accepted a position with St. Louis University.

DINEEN GRIFFIN, a 1986 graduate of Granite City High School, has been awarded a four-year partial departmental scholarship to Fontbonne College in St. Louis. She is the daughter of James and Joan Griffin of Newell Drive in Granite City.

Police to check for auto stickers

GRANITE CITY — City motorists, beware.

The Granite City Police Department will man roadblocks in various locations within the city starting at 8 a.m. Monday, June 9, checking for autos without city vehicle stickers, said Chief Bill Harris.

"All citizens living in the Granite City limits are required to purchase city stickers," he said.

Motorists not having the required license sticker will face a $25 fine, Harris said.

Stickers are available at the office of City Clerk Robert Stevens, located in the City Hall, 2000 Edison Ave.

Prices for the stickers are $10 for cars, $5 for motorcycles and $15 for trucks.

THE LAW AND YOU

BY RICK REED
Attorney At Law

Sometimes pregnant women contact this office and inquire about their rights with regard to maternity leave and disability benefits at their place of employment. Many women in this situation feel they should be compensated for disability pay during their pregnancy. Others seek a leave of absence and are denied this right. A great deal of confusion has arisen because of the many changes in the law over the years.

In 1968, the Equal Employment Opportunity Commission stated that pregnancy was a disability. Four years later, the EEOC clarified this ruling and said that pregnancy was a temporary disability. In 1976, however, the United States Supreme Court said that compensation for pregnancy-related disability was unfair.

Apparently the basis for this decision was that pregnancy-related disability was an odd, non-risky condition unique to women. In 1978, Congress passed the pregnancy discrimination amendment. Since this enactment, it has been apparent that pregnancy is to be treated on the same basis as any other temporary disability.

What does this legislation mean to the pregnant woman in the work force? One thing should be made clear at the outset. This law does not mean that a company must adopt a medical leave policy or disability pay policy for pregnant women. If they do have a policy in force, however, woman must be compensated for pregnancy-related disabilities if the men are paid when disabled. If no amendment simply means that pregnant women cannot be treated differently for any employment-related purpose from any other person who is unable to work.

Therefore, if the company has a policy regarding medical leave, this policy must be applied equally to the injured worker and the pregnant woman who is unable to work. Likewise, if disability benefits are provided by the employer, the pregnant woman must not be discriminated against with regard to this fringe benefit program. The law now requires the employer to treat pregnancy-related disability the same as other forms of disability.

In 1983, the Supreme Court ruled that men should be covered for any pregnancy-related problems in the same way women are. If a company has a policy allowing a medical leave of absence, theoretically a man whose wife has a child should be given time off. Therefore, many companies today are adopting a policy of "parental leave" rather than "maternity leave."

OchoaKurt Hylla:
A comeback
worth noting

It was a gamble. Much like actor Christopher Walken in the movie "The Deer Hunter," waiting the trigger of that revolver. He didn't know what chamber the lone bullet was resting.

When Kurt Hylla signed on to play football at Triton Junior College last fall, he, too, was taking a gamble. For openers, Hylla didn't know how his ankle would react during football practice early in the fall of 1984. It required surgery where doctors placed four pins in it.

Hylla never played a down his senior season at Granite City High School. He watched the Warriors play while hobbling about on crutches.

Here was an all-conference defensive back and team captain forced to take a spectator's role. Many feared his athletic career might be jeopardized. It was the second severe ankle injury Hylla had suffered. He hurt the left ankle a year earlier.

Hylla, however, regrouped in time to play basketball. He was named honorable mention All-Southwestern Conference and helped lead the Warriors to a regional championship. (Granite City lost to Alton in the sectionals, 53-43.)

He was also the starting right fielder for the Warrior baseball team. But football was his forte. Hylla went to Triton, a junior college in DuPage County. He earned a spot in the starting lineup and helped lead the Trojans to an 8-2 record.

Triton is a school rich in athletic tradition. One of its alumni is Kirby Puckett of the Minnesota Twins.

The Trojans ended the season ranked No. 9 in the final National Junior College Athletic Association football poll. They were co-champions of the North Central Community College Conference with Harper College. Both finished at 6-1 in the league.

Harper beat Triton 26-20 the first game of the season on Aug. 31. After that, Triton won eight straight. The Trojans ended the season with a 21-14 loss to Moraine Valley in the playoffs.

Triton had its best football season in the school's history. The Trojans established 10 new school records:

- Its first conference championship.
- Most conference wins.
- Best conference record.
- Most consecutive wins.
- Most consecutive conference wins.
- Best season record.
- Best winning percentage.
- Most interceptions (27).
- Most fumbles recovered (25).
- Total turnovers forced (52).

In the defensive backfield, Hylla was a force. In 10 games in 1985, he grabbed seven interceptions, tops on the team. That placed him second in the school's history for career thefts.

Hylla was named the outstanding freshman defensive player for Triton. He was also named honorable mention on the NJCAA All-Region IV team.

Like most junior college ballplayers, Hylla hopes to make it to a four-year school. John Dozier, his defensive backfield mate who played for East St. Louis (Sr.) High School, had six interceptions in 1985. Dozier, a sophomore, was offered a scholarship to Iowa.

If Hylla puts together a year like he had as a freshman, maybe some college coaches will be calling. A gamble that turns out like this may just be a sure bet.

GC Sheet Metal drops home opener

By Dave Whaley

GRANITE CITY — It sure didn't look like a game between two teams that had opposite records last year.

The Granite City Sheet Metal Junior League team, 4-20 last season, faced Kirkwood (20-4 in 1985) in Granite City's home opener Wednesday night at Varsity Field, and with just a couple of plays going the other way, the home team would have come away with a win.

Instead, Kirkwood took a 3-1 decision in their first game of the year. Granite City fell to 1-1.

GC Sheet Metal outlived Kirkwood 4-2 in the game as both John Narup and Mike Krausz pitched very well. But Narup hit a small wild streak in the fourth inning and allowed his only hit as Kirkwood took advantage of the opportunity for three runs.

"It was a very good ball game," said Granite City manager Jim Nelson. "This is one of the best teams in our league, and we stayed in the game with them the whole way. We got good strong pitching from both John and Mike."

Granite City had only three runners in the first five innings against winning pitcher Brad Gray, a lefthander, who struck out 11 and walked only one.

Second baseman Kory Burton reached on an error in the first inning and went to second on a wild pickoff attempt. Lance Jakich's hard grounder, however, was fielded nicely by Louis Isom at third for the final out.

Gray retired nine in a row before Jeff Grote got the first hit with one out in the fourth. He was picked off first, however, before Jakich lined a single up the middle. He was stranded when John Moad was called out on strikes.

Kirkwood advanced a runner to third with two outs in the first, but Narup got Cleaver Taylor to bounce back to the mound. But Narup walked Leo Ragland to lead off the fourth. After Taylor hit into a force play, he stole second and David Edwards walked.

Designated hitter Brent Stobart got the first Kirkwood hit, bouncing one between third and short to drive in Taylor. Jason Smith's late throw home sailed to the backstop and the runners moved to second and third. Edwards scored on a wild pitch and Stobart scored on an infield out.

He might have been out at the plate, but Jakich couldn't handle the throw from Moad.

"We didn't get the breaks at the right times," Nelson said. "They got enough to get three runs."

After Gray struck out the side in the Granite City fifth, he weakened a bit in the sixth. With one out, Smith got a bunt single and Grote walked with two outs. Jakich grounded a single into left field, scoring Smith, but when Taylor fumbled the ball, Jakich tried for second and was thrown out on a close play.

"That was kind of a borderline play," Nelson said. "Even the home plate umpire agreed with us on that one. He said it could have gone either way."

Granite City went down in order in the seventh inning.

Despite taking the loss, Narup allowed only one hit in five innings, but he walked four. Krausz finished up with only one infield hit in two innings. Granite City made a couple of sparkling defensive plays. Moad started and finished a 3-6-3 double play in the third.

scoping the return throw from Grote. And Smith made an outstanding running catch to end the sixth.

"We faced a super pitcher tonight," Nelson said of Gray. "But if we get pitching like this, we'll do much better this year."

"I've only got four guys back from last year (Grote, Harold Upshaw, Rich Nelson and Marc Varady). But they want to play, and we should only get better."

GRANITE CITY WENT DOWN IN ORDER IN THE SEVENTH INNING.

Sr. Legion
opens Friday

By Gregg Ochoa

Executive Sports Editor

Tri-City American Legion Post 113 will virtually jump into the fire when the Triplets open the 1986 baseball season Friday.

Tri-City will play Marissa, whose high school team won the Class A state championship over Eldorado Tuesday night in Springfield.

"It will be a big test for us," said Tri-City manager Dave Coakley, who begins his third season at the helm.

The Triplets finished last season at 12-12 before losing to Highland in the North Division finals.

Coakley and the Triplets will have some rebuilding to do, as Tri-City lost nine players from last year's squad.

"I'm running short of ballplayers this year," Coakley said. "I'm hoping to sign up a few more. We should have a good lineup. We just need a few more on the bench."

Almost all of the players were on the Granite City High School team which went 22-13 before being eliminated from the regional tournament.

Coakley said many of the positions are set, perhaps with the exception of first base. Last year's first baseman, Pat Cathey, isn't eligible to play legion ball. Jim Chomko, who played first in high school, has a summer job.

"I'll probably be using my pitchers at first base," Coakley said.

At second base, Jamie Hogan and Scott Coakley will likely see time at that position. However, early in the season, Hogan will see action at short.

Todd Hinterser would normally hold down the position, but he is recovering from arthroscopic knee surgery. Hinterser, who led the Warriors in RBIs, was expected to be sidelined for two weeks.

Steve Davis will get the call at third base. Behind the plate, it will

Venice to play
in 7-Up shootout

ST. LOUIS — The Venice Red Devils will be playing in the 6th annual Seven-Up Shootout scheduled for Thursday, Dec. 18 at Kiel Auditorium.

The Red Devils, who feature all-state candidate Jesse Hall, went 26-6 last year before losing to Class A champion Teutopolis in the Super-Regionals.

Venice will meet West Frankfort (20-10), who finished fourth in the Class A state finals. Tieoff is set for 5:30 p.m.

A game between twotime Missouri state champion Vashon, whose only loss last season was to Venice, and national power DeMatha High School of Maryland will be featured at 8:30 p.m.

Super swimmer

TOM WERNER, a 56-year-old employee of Granite City Steel, has done more than 3,000 miles of swimming in his life. Werner has done most of the swimming at the Tri-City YMCA, 2001 Edison, Granite City. He goes to the 'Y' almost every day around noon and does 50 lengths of the pool, or about 1,000 yards. Pat Barker, executive director of the YMCA, said it was the most swimming anyone has ever done at the 'Y', as far as he knew. Werner, who puts in about 20 minutes at the pool each day (inset), said he started counting in 1967 when the Red Cross sponsored a function to teach people to swim. "I come here just about every day, except when I'm on vacation," Werner said.

Davis wins Junior Olympic title

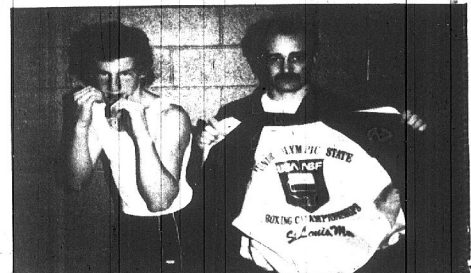

T.J. Davis, 14, of Granite City, recently won the Missouri Junior Olympic State Championship in boxing.

Davis, a 119-pound sub-novice Golden Gloves champion, scored a second-round knockout of Leon Dellworth of the 12th & Park Club in St. Louis. Dellworth was the runner-up in the 119-pound division of the Golden Gloves earlier this year.

In the semifinals of the championships, held May 23, Davis got the decision over Anthony Dean of the Pop Miles Club in East St. Louis in what Roger Bloodworth, Davis' trainer, said was one of the best bouts he had ever seen.

"It was an exceptional fight," Bloodworth said. "T.J. took a tremendous punch from Dean in the first round, and he went down. It was one of the hardest punches I've ever seen a 14-year-old take."

Theta Iota studies paintings

"Painting: Understanding and Enjoying" was the program presented to Theta Iota members by Joyce Alexander at the chapter's final meeting for the 1985-86 year.

Examples of various paintings and sketches were exhibited and the different techniques were explained.

Members gave reports on the Mother's Day brunch, the recent yard sale, the bake sale at Granite City Bowl to benefit Catie DeCoursey, and the Mother's Day tea hosted by Laureate Alpha Gamma.

Newly installed officers are President Joyce Alexander, Vice President Myra Polston, Treasurer Mary Bury, Recording Secretary Sheri Shanks, Corresponding Secretary Nancy Markey and Extension Officer Susan Bury.

The group plans several social activities and ways and means projects during the summer.

Cub Pack 47, sponsored by St. Mary's Church in Madison, participated in a conservation project. All boys were taken to Arlington Heights to complete the requirements in their books.

They visited a lake and a burned-out area and discussed soil and pollution. They made plans on how to clean up areas.

They also planted a tree together and discussed how to properly care for it. After this, they played several games as a den to help earn arrow points, and then held a picnic.

On a later date, to help complete the requirements, a slide show and lecture were given by Dr. Frank Kullinski of SIUE. Arrangements were made with the help of Thomas Modglin of Granite City.

Attending the slide show presentation as special guests were Mrs. Thomas Modglin and her daughter.

Others attending or participating in the project were Leader Ann Bisto, Assistant Leader Sherri Guardiola, Cubmaster Jackie Arnold, Treasurer Jane Felty, Derek Guardiola, Travon Horton, Dwayne Blakely, Derrick Buchek, Louie Arnold, Christopher Bisto and Michael Lancaster.

Those completing and receiving the World Conservation Award were Derek Guardiola and Kenneth Felty.

The cub pack also attended the Magic House in Kirkwood, Mo. The boys got to choose a trip of their choice for their good conduct candles. They went through the touch tunnel, shadow room, computer room and skill room, had their pictures taken in the static room.

All boys attending received a pin with their photo and also received lunch at McDonald's Restaurant. Attending were Leader Ann Bisto, Assistant Leader Sherri Guardiola, Assistant Cubmaster Pamela Lancaster and her husband, Michael Lancaster, Derek Guardiola, Kenneth Felty, Louie Arnold, Derrick Buchek, Travon Horton, Dwayne Blakely, Christopher Bisto, Michael Lancaster and a guest, Kevin Lancaster.

Christian Scientists meeting

The Church of Christ, Scientist, convened its 53rd annual meeting in Boston June 2, focused its attention on fulfilling the denomination's "mission of Christ-healing. The theme was traditional for Christian Scientists but the meeting was not.

In a pre-taped video, the five-member board of directors stressed the church's founding purpose, dating from 1879.

For the first time, videotapes of the Boston meeting will be shown at Christian Science churches around the world, enabling members of the century-old denomination to be part of the meeting in their respective cities and countries. In Granite City, members of the Christian Science Church have scheduled a meeting later in the summer for this purpose.

Reports from the field, from Christian Scientists around the world, were also delivered via video recordings.

Those attending the two-hour afternoon meeting also heard reports from church officers and committees, including the church treasurer, Donald Bowersock. He indicated contributions not only supported the church's various worldwide denominational activities, but also enabled it to contribute to a variety of humanitarian relief organizations, including the United Nations Disaster Relief Organization, UNICEF, the Red Cross, Lutheran World Relief, Oxfam and CARE.

A panel of editors discussed the church's religious publications. These include the 78-year-old international newspaper, The Christian Science Monitor, and members were updated on the Monitor's new broadcasting activities on radio and television.

The newly appointed clerk of The Mother Church, Mrs. Virginia S. Harris of Birmingham, Mich., reported on last summer's international gathering for young Christian Scientists who are members of Christian Science Organizations on university campuses.

The meeting on "Individual Spirituality and the Future of Mankind" drew 2,500 students and faculty members from 22 countries.

It was announced that Timothy A. MacDonald of Washington, D.C. and Marianne Bauer of Frankfurt, Germany, have been appointed to three-year terms as readers at The Mother Church. The new president, Mrs. Jean K. Weidie, Boston, brings to the one-year post long service to the denomination's healing and nursing activities.

Mr. and Mrs. Lux announce daughter

Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Lux of Tooele, Utah, formerly of Granite City, are announcing the birth of a daughter on May 6.

The new arrival has been named Kimberly Anne and she weighed 8 pounds, 12½ ounces.

The father is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald (June) Lux of Granite City and the mother is the former Karen Davidson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orville Davidson of Cahokia.

Weekly Health Tip

By Steve Burdge, R. Ph.

HOT CAR CAN KILL

Parents should not lock children in the car while they shop. In warm weather, the direct rays of the sun, with lack of ventilation, can turn a car into an oven. With outside temperatures of 80°, the car's inside temperature can hit 130° after 45 minutes. If your children are under five, take them with you when you shop. Consider your pets as well.

Pontoon Beach News

Lucille Martin
931-0731

Those given prizes at Pontoon Beach seniors' dinner on Saturday evening were Sally Cummings, Belle Kreher and Delbert McKissick.

Others present were Marion Winkle, Ted and Nita Jacobs, Elva Lammement, Joe Pisel, Chellis Grisby, Della Rabb, Augusta McKissick, Birdie Tayan, Mamie Lane, Mary Hodshire, Karynn Edmonds, Pete and Vera Bolton, Irma Bernaix, Ted and Leola

Tucker, Tom and Lucille Martin, Leland and Ann Burris, Helen Niepert, Ida and Lowell Furgerson, Leona and Ray McCoy, Marcela Cohen, Mrs. Fisher, Lee and Betty Ridgeway, Floyd Ridgeway, Bertha Hall and Les Cummings.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Wilson of Pontoon Beach spent the weekend at the Lake of the Ozarks.

Mr. and Mrs. Leland Burris of LaBelle, Mo., were overnight guests of Thomas and Lucille Martin Saturday night. They were here to attend the annual North Venice picnic at Wilson Park on Sunday, and also visited other friends and relatives in Granite City and Venice.

Sandy Wilson and son, Chadman, have returned from Sioux Center, Iowa, where they spent a week visiting her relatives.

Sgt. and Mrs. Alan Thompson and daughter, Jennifer, of Norfolk, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. Ed Jeff the past week. He is the son of Mrs. Jeff.

Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hollis and children, Benjie and Angie, were in Flint, Mich., last week as guests of Agnes and Marshall Russell. They attended the wedding of her niece, Cindy Hollis, to Gary Herr.

Auxiliary officers and chairmen feted

Eagles Auxiliary 1126 President Vincine Zerlan recognized all the officers and chairmen who served during the year of 1985-86 with a party in the Eagles Home meeting hall. She thanked all the members who made her year as president a success, and presented gifts to her past officers and chairmen.

Refreshments were served by Zerlan and her committee at tables decorated with vases of blue and white flowers and streamers.

Helen Lipchik, publicity chairman for the past year, was escorted to the altar by the conductor and was presented a gift by the president.

A meeting was conducted by President Zerlan, with the flag, emblem of the home and Bible being placed on the altar by Conductor Kathy Barnhart.

Chaplain Yvonne Gray gave the opening prayer.

The secretary read a letter from the Eagles Grand Aerie stating that the local auxiliary has a "no goose egg" for April, with an initiation held that month for five new members.

A thank you card was read from Florence Hagnauer, auxiliary mother, for gifts received on Mother's Day.

Prizes were awarded to Ruth Jorgenson and Ann Konopka.

First Assembly opens adult study classes

First Assembly of God Church, 24th Street and Grand Avenue, is offering three new adult study classes, according to the Rev. Pete Baker, Christian education director. This addition now allows adults to choose from six Sunday morning courses.

"You and Your Teen" is taught by the senior pastor, Dale Edwards. It is a topical discussion group that is specifically designed to address issues unique to parents of teenagers. Topics such as resolving conflict, improving communication and administering discipline are among those discussed.

"Three to Win" offering instruction in lifestyle evangelism and soul-winning is directed by Tim Elliott. Christians will learn how to "give away their faith," with lessons such as "The Master Shows How," "Laws of the Harvest" and others.

"Contagious Christianity" is a study of the New Testament book of 1st Thessalonians using materials prepared by Chuck Swindoll, popular writer and radio speaker. Baker leads this informal discussion group.

Three long-established classes include "Harmony," taught by John Pithers Sr., "Men's Bible Class," led by Frank Bechtel, and the Lydia Class for ladies, taught by Margaret Pithers.

The entire Sunday school, including graded classes from nursery through college and careers, begins at 9:30 a.m. Visitors are invited to attend the Second Cup Fellowship, an informal coffee and doughnut time that begins at 9 a.m.

Party honors Maynard Mercer

A surprise birthday party was given in honor of Maynard Mercer at Jerry's Cafeteria, where a buffet dinner was served.

Shirley and Kim Mercer played the piano as all sang. Maynard's two brothers, Watson and Randolph, "roasted" him with recollections of past happenings.

Out-of-town guests were the Rev. and Mrs. Randol (Shirley) Mercer, Jim and Dawn Cherry and their sons, Jeffery and Andrew, from Virden, Ill., and Jerry and Cindy Mercer and daughter Heather, of Glen Carbon.

Guests from Granite City were Watson and Esther Mercer, Carl Mercer, Mike and Vanessa Mercer and son, Thomas, and daughters, Lindsay and Melissa Ron and Vicki Simpson and sons Jay and Cory, and daughter, Amy Bill and Vineta Smallie, Duane and Elaine Smallie and sons Scott, Joshua and Timothy, Faye Mercer, Terry and Candice Mercer and daughters, Kim, Jayme and Shelia, and son, Matthew, June Mercer, Bruce and Ladon Van and daughters, Lisa and Traci, Tom and Ruth Kaminski, Bernice Mercer, Beryl Mercer and Rhonda Vest. Brad Mercer could not attend because he was finishing his schooling in Atlanta, Ga.

Jerry and Coleen Roderick surprised the honoree with a birthday cake.

Psalms 100:2 ... "Serve the Lord with gladness: come before his presence with singing."

The most satisfying and fulfilling experience in one's life is that of serving God. The knowledge that we are doing something for Him fills a need within us that nothing else in the world can.

We were created by Him for His good pleasure. It is God's desire to have fellowship with us. He is most pleased when we are close to Him and certainly we are most happy when He is close to us.

One of the outstanding characteristics of a Christian is his joy. He is happy inside and it shows outside. He serves God with gladness.

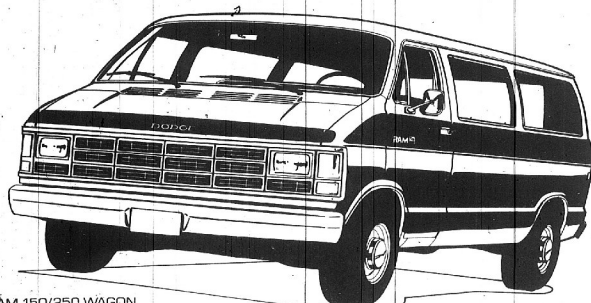

Will you serve Him? Today.

Mr. and Mrs. Carl Cuccatti of Bluebird Lane have had as their guests Steve Sanders and Terry Upchurch of New Zealand. On Sunday they entertained with a barbecue for their guests and Frank and Phyllis Mir, of Hazelwood, Rich Kollenman of Collinsville, Cathy Grosheim of Collinsville, Cheryl Curry of Hazelwood, Randy and Angela Pacette and daughter, Jessica Lynn, and Tonya Sue and Phillip Cuccatti of Granite City.

Mr. and Mrs. Burton Clark of Youngstown, N.Y., were guests last week of Doris and Gene Ross and Mrs. Thelma Ward of Granite City.

Mrs. Glenna Staggs, Mrs. Crystal Hale and Michelle Staggs have returned from St. Clair Shores, Mich., where they were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Richard Kahn and other relatives.

After a worship service on Sunday evening at the Pontoon Baptist Church, a regular monthly fellowship meeting was held to honor those with birthdays and wedding anniversaries during the month.

Birthday honorees were Barbara Rigby and a guest, Esther Dehler. The group celebrated the 21st wedding anniversary of Dorothy and Richard Rainey, the 31st wedding anniversary of Lila and Ed Frost and the 51st wedding anniversary of Lucille and Thomas Martin.

Chapter 1340 aids Phoenix

Granite City Chapter 1340 of the American Association of Retired Persons (AARP) held a dinner dance in lieu of its regular monthly meeting at the Granite City Township Building, 2060 Delmar Ave., with 300 members in attendance.

President Juanita Crawley welcomed everyone, and the dinner prayer was given by Karmyn Edmonds. The dinner was catered and served by Jerry's Cafeteria, and dancing was enjoyed to the music of Howard Bolton and his Alley Cats.

Margaret Rimarchik, the oldest member present, was presented a bouquet of roses by Irma Manning, program chairman.

The guest speaker for the evening was Barbara Young, president of the board of directors of Phoenix Crisis Center, accompanied by Charles Roach, a board member.

Young explained the assistance given by the Phoenix Crisis Center to domestic violence victims, to help them to get psychological, medical, legal and financial aid. They also give emotional and practical support to victims, and offer individual and group counseling.

A check for $100 was presented to Young for the center by Juanita Crawley. Various household items and cash donations by AARP members were also given to Young to help support the Phoenix Crisis Center.

Music Under the Stars opens chorus rehearsals

The Granite City Park District "Music Under the Stars" summer choruses will begin rehearsals for the 1986 season on Monday, June 9, at the Granite City High School vocal room.

The children's chorus is for students in kindergarten through eighth grade. They will rehearse from 1 to 2 p.m. every Monday and Thursday. No previous experience is necessary. They will perform primarily music from Broadway musicals and do some movement and costuming with their songs. The adult chorus is made up of high school and adult members of the community. It is a non-audition group. Adults who enjoy singing many different styles of music from Cole Porter melodies to Broadway shows to soft pop sounds are being encouraged to participate in the summer chorus. No previous choral experience is necessary. The adult chorus rehearses from 7 to 9 p.m. every Monday and Thursday.

The choruses will once again be under the direction of Mrs. Mary Ann Bright. There are four concerts scheduled for the season to be given at Wilson Park. Additional information may be obtained by phoning the park office or by attending the rehearsals on June 9.

Laureate Chapter concludes year

The end of the 1985-86 club year was celebrated by the Laureate Alpha Gamma Chapter of Beta Sigma Phi members when met in the home of Norma Rains on May 28, the last meeting of the season.

They were served a buffet supper. The evening's activities began with a toast to the past and the future led by the recently installed chapter president, Jane Stevens.

A business meeting was conducted during which committee assignments for the 1986-87 year were announced by Mrs. Stevens. Expressions of appreciation received by the chapter since the last meeting were displayed, and included notes from Ben Rucker of Granite City and Nancy Kuntze of St. Louis. Evelyn Tolliver thanked chapter members for the honor bestowed on her young granddaughter, Allison, who was recently installed as a Beta Sigma Phi legacy member. She shared mementos of the occasion the next day with her classmates in Edwardsville.

Arlene Aldeman led the cultural program for the evening on Italian architecture.

Highlighted in her presentation was the Pantheon, a unique domed structure originally built in Rome over 2,000 years ago, first used as a pagan temple and then as a Christian church.

Long a favorite of many American tourists, the Pantheon remains memorable to them because of its incredible engineering and the simplicity of its design and decor, the group was told.

The evening concluded with a distribution of gifts from members' secret Beta buddies during the past year; they made their identities known to each other during the exchange.

It was noted that the summer will include a number of social get-togethers, including a bridal shower, an anniversary reception, and two weddings. Also, chapter members and their spouses will spend a July weekend in Avon, a Central Illinois community where Ed and Jane Stevens have a country home.

Also attending were Lora Mae Lombardi, Martha Jean Dyest, Dolores Byrnes, Jean Forrester, Delores Dorch, Pat Tsigolaroff, Juanita Calve and Ruth Stoyanoff.

Social Notes

By Donna Kimbro

BUTTERFLY CLUB members met in the home of Harriet Hoff, 3741 Fair Oaks Drive, for an evening of pinocchio games.

Prizes were awarded to Edith Ryan, Mary Lou Claussen, Lorraine McIlvoy, Thelma Schmidt and Juanita Rosenberg.

Others present were Katie Hommert, Nell Talley and Hazel Rollins. Hommert will host the next meeting.

MEMBERSHIP and Motherhood was the theme of the Granite City Republican Women's meeting held at Jerry's Cafeteria. President Vernice Walter welcomed the group and introduced guests, Alyce Neumann and Evelyn Maudey.

Gladys Pape gave a report on the GOP Business Men's meeting, noting there were 54 present including three November general election candidates, Bob Gaffner, Tom Voloski and Kevin Sykes. Tom Long, county Republican chairman, also attended.

There will be two proposed constitutional amendments on the ballot in the coming election. It was noted. One amendment is to restrict the right of an accused criminal to be released on bail and the other is to exempt the real estate tax on personal property owned by veterans' groups.

Jim Edgar, secretary of state, is to mail information on the proposals to each resident, the president said.

The next meeting on June 28 will be hosted by Leona Bell, Americanism chairman.

BETTE REA displayed several pieces of her porcelain painting and explained the steps needed to complete an object, at a meeting of Chapter KU, P. O. Sisterhood.

The session was held in the home of Fay Carlisle with Mary Jo Dame, president, presiding. The president presented a gift, on behalf of the members, to Rita McConnell, who will be moving to North Carolina soon.

During a previous meeting in the home of Mary Mullen, Ruth Ann Bartels gave a book review as the program for the day.

A dessert presentation was served by Carlisle to Bessie Coolidge, Hulda Davis, Barbara Houston, Carol Davis, Joanne Krats, Bonnie Loftus, Selma Nelson, Evelyn Maxwell, Mary McCarty, Melinda Nasir, Marta Papa, Sandra Palovich and Bonnie Wilkinson.

IRMA TAYLOR, president of Daughters of Union Veterans Tent 92, announced the 92nd annual department convention will take place in Decatur on June 6 and 7 at the Holiday Inn, during a meeting of the organization.

Members met at Jerry's Cafeteria and also conducted memorial services for Civil War veterans and deceased members of the DUW.

Opening prayer was by Arline Fox. Leitha Gilchoff led the pledge to the flag. Reports were given by Enid Bolin and Louise Thompson.

Gilchoff was hostess for the day and after the meeting directed several games. A special prize was awarded to Joyce Moran.

STELLA HAYES of Granite City was guest of honor at a surprise birthday party given in Wilson Park during the weekend.

The social event was planned to mark the honoree's 82nd birthday and was hosted by her five sons and daughters-in-law.

They were Mr. and Mrs. Jack Hayes of Salem, Mo., Mr. and Mrs. William Hayes of Edwardsville, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Don Hayes, all of Granite City, and the Rev. and Mrs. Larry Hayes of Ottumwa, Iowa.

Out-of-state guests were Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Hayes and Mr. and Mrs. Lacy Hayes, all of Tennessee. There were 60 members of the family present, including children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Snyder family hosts reunion

The family of Willis and Beulah Snyder, 2636 Pontoon Road, held a family reunion at the Hartford gymnasium.

Those in attendance were Jerry and Ruth Snyder, Bruce, Tim and Kim Snyder, Beth, Bob and Bobby Jr. Snyder, Karen and Jerome Johnson, Nancy, Richard, Richie and Brandon Owens, Darlene, Walter and Melodi Winters, Lena and Don Seitzer, Durwood and Wanda Snyder, Vicky and Steve Miller.

Also, Jerry, Steven and Geoff Miller, Dan, Cheryl, Ben, Tim and Doug Seitzer, Denise, David, Susan and Sarah Johns, Hazel Rhoades, Patsy, Amy and Kenney Paul, Thelma Hendricks, Marilyn and Paul Lunford, Frank Champion, Tom Schmidt, Daniel, Debra, Chris and Danielle Waugh, Frank, Norma, Bill and Suzanne Fisher.

Elbert Goodin marks 90th year

Mr. and Mrs. Gene Frith and family of Granite City hosted an afternoon party for Elbert "Red" Goodin who celebrated his 90th birthday on Sunday.

The honoree is a World War I veteran and worked at the former Union Starch & Refining Co. plant in Granite City until he retired.

He is an uncle of Mrs. Frith. He was presented with many gifts after refreshments were served.

LAZENBY FAMILY: Five generations of the family meet in Granite City for a gathering. Seated are Mrs. Myrtle Lazenby, holding her great-great-grandson, Michael Norman Hangsleben II, and on the right, Mrs. Sandy (Lazenby) Townzen, grandmother. Standing are Calvin Lazenby Jr., great-grandfather and Wendy Hangsleben, mother of the infant.

First Assembly to hear speaker

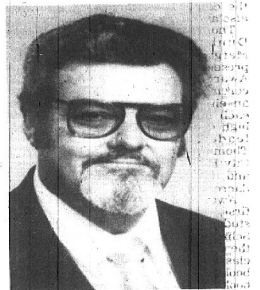

The Rev. John G. Burke, an Assemblies of God missionary to Guam, will be the guest speaker for a conference at First Assembly of God, 24th Street and Grand Avenue. The conference will begin Thursday, June 5, and run through Sunday, June 8, according to Pastor Dale Edwards. Special emphasis will be given to baptism throughout the conference.

Rev. Burke and his wife, Marilyn, have been serving as missionaries to Guam, the Marianas Islands and Micronesia for the past 24 years. During their most recent 4-year term the Burkes pastored Yigo First Assembly of God in Guam.

Since arriving in Guam in 1961 the Burkes have seen the work grow to include three Assemblies of God churches, both military and indigenous, with a new church opening on the neighboring island of Saipan in January 1985.

The Burkes have also helped in establishing missions in the Micronesian islands of Ponape, Belau and Truk, with Belau being the most recent. A well-established mission is now operating in the Marshall Islands as a result of their work there.

Rev. Burke served in the U.S. Army in 1949-52. Later, he attended North Central Bible College in

Rev. John Burke

Minneapolis, Minn., receiving a bachelor of arts degree. The Rev. Burkes pastored in Milla, Minn., before their missionary appointment.

Services during the conference will begin at 7 o'clock each night and at 6:30 p.m. on Sunday. Rev. Burke will also speak in the 10:30 a.m. Sunday worship service. The public is invited to all the meetings. Pastor Edwards said.

The Knights of Columbus sponsored an eighth grade graduation party for all the graduating eighth grade students from St. Elizabeth, St. Margaret Mary, St. Mary-St. Mark and Sacred Heart-St. Joseph schools.

The party was held on May 17 and was attended by approximately 200 students and their parents. It was the first time this event was planned; it was chaired by Tom Boyd and Steve Schardan.

There was a disc jockey spinning records and all the students received passes from Pepsi, Naheoki Cinema, Star Theater, Granite City Bowl, Lakeview Driving Range, YMCA, Bowland, Day's Movies and Johnny's Funland.

St. Margaret Mary's eighth grade graduation was held on Wednesday, May 28. There was a Mass honoring graduates at 7 p.m. and a potluck dinner followed in the cafeteria, with their parents also attending.

Thomas Schmedake and Linda Dunbar, graduates of St. Margaret Mary's School, were presented the American Legion Award during the graduation ceremony. This award is given to an eighth grade boy and girl in each school and is awarded for high qualities of courage, honor, leadership and patriotism.

Thomas will be attending Granite City High School South in the fall and Linda will be moving to Sacramento, Calif.

Awards were presented to the first, second and third grade students at St. Margaret Mary's School on Tuesday, May 27, after the 8:10 Mass. Each child in these classes who read a minimum of 50 books for the first grade and 100 books for the second and third grade received a trophy. The teachers for the above classes are Mrs. Sandy Wilkinson, Mrs. Sophie Provasnik and Miss Mary McKay.

The Jump-A-Thon held in May at St. Margaret Mary's School raised about $1,600 for the poor in this diocese and Peru.

Trophies were awarded to students for raising the most money and to the teams that accumulated the largest sums. Students who received awards were Shannon Houtler, Kyle Harlan, Sara Curran, Jason Brown, Jeff Seiz, Tim Miller, Holly Odum, Susan Tessary, Callie Kröze, Amy McDowell, Renee Brown, Matt Laws, Derrick Webb, Amanda Preloger, Angie Vasquez, Jason Dillard, Mike Brimberry, Dusty Dunbar, Dustin Wilkinson, Christine Hoffman, Kelle Marcum, Holly Mason and Christine Dickerman.

The project was planned by Sister Marilyn Therese and parents attended to supervise.

Mr. and Mrs. M.H. Holten were in Indianapolis, Ind., visiting family members and hoping to view the Indianapolis 500, but rain prevented them from viewing the auto race.

The nuns from St. Margaret Mary's Paving will be paving in the middle of June, after serving the school for more than 20 years.

Parks plan new summer programs

By Bill Milligan
Staff writer

GRANITE CITY — Standardized costs and a wide variety of programs are planned by the Park District this summer.

"We're planning a little better range of programs this summer," said Recreation Director Dave Price. "We want to give everybody a chance to participate."

Summer programs are beginning this Monday.

Registration fees for adults have been set at $7.50 for adult residents and $17.50 for non-residents. Fees for children living within the Park District will be $5; non-resident fees will be $10.

New program offerings include:

"A seven-week sports program for girls 8 through 12, introducing them to volleyball, soccer, softball and tennis."

"A 12-week light exercise program for senior citizens and people with cardiovascular problems, consisting of light exercise and group walks. A doctor's release is required."

"A self-improvement and self-confidence program stressing personal grooming and the importance of nutrition, exercise and public speaking for junior high and high school girls."

"A 12-week youth aerobics program for those 14 through 18 to promote fitness and weight control."

Plans to form a "swimmers" water exercise class will take shape in late June.

The Park District will again offer recreation programs at five area elementary schools. Schools included are Niedringhaus, Parkview, Prather, Webster and Wilson.

The program will be offered seven weeks, Monday through Friday, from 9 a.m. until noon and again from 1 until 3 p.m. Signups will be on-site, the first day of the program.

Weekly highlights include swims in the Wilson Park pool, movies, tournaments, arts, crafts and games. During the program children will be taken to a Cardinal baseball game.

The program is open to children grades 2 through 6.

Popular programs like the baseball, school, tennis lessons, simmettes, movies and music under the stars, and a series of big band concerts will remain the same.

Park District softball leagues have signed up 160 teams this summer. Baseball leagues have 50 teams competing.

"Overall participation is pretty decent this year," said Price. "We're up over last year."

Price said attendance so far at the swimming pool has also been very good.

"We're increasing participation and happy about it," he said.

The district recently published a summer program guide with specifics on recreation offerings.

For more information, persons may call 877-3059.

Sales manager

PRAIRIE FARMS DAIRY has announced the promotion of Ed Mullins to the position of sales manager, St. Louis Division. Mullins has served in various sales positions since joining Prairie Farms Dairy in 1980. The announcement was made by William M. Guthrie, vice president of Prairie Farms and general manager of the St. Louis Division. Mullins will continue to be headquartered in the Prairie Farms Granite City office at 1800 Adams St.

House passes Wolf's felony extradition bill

Counties would be reimbursed by the state for extradition expenses of all felony suspects, under a bill overwhelmingly approved by the Illinois House.

The sponsor of House Bill 2596, Rep. Sam Wolf, D-Granite City, says the measure would change current law that only requires the state to reimburse counties for the extradition expenses of persons charged with non-probationary felonies.

"In most cases, extradition costs are just as expensive for probationary felonies as for non-probationary felonies," Wolf said.

"Some counties now have to put a priority on what cases they extradite due to the cost. And some people charged with felonies are being freed just because counties cannot afford to go after them."

"This bill will require the state to reimburse counties for extradition costs of all felonies, both probationary and non-probationary."

Wolf emphasized the measure stipulates that the felony charges must be officially filed before a county can obtain reimbursement.

"With counties having financial difficulties now, we would be remiss if we did not include non-probationary felonies as reimbursable offenses," Wolf concluded.

The bill cleared the House 96 to 17 and now goes to the Senate.

Scott preparing for air show

La Patrouille de France, a French aerobatic team, will perform July 25 and 26 in the Scott Air Force Base air show.

La Patrouille de France, flying the twin-engine Alpha Jet, will highlight a number of aerial and ground activities planned for the open-to-the-public annual event at the big base near Belleville.

Although types of aircraft available for viewing are not yet known, many of the Air Force's most modern fighters, transport trainers, helicopters and other aircraft are expected for display.

Ground demonstrations planned are military working dog performances, continuous musical entertainment including elements of the Military Airlift Command band, and demonstrations of military firefighting equipment.

Refreshments and games will be available.

Scott Air Force Base is located off exit 19-A of Interstate 64.

Chouteau will obtain computer

By Donna Kimbro
Staff writer

CHOUTEAU — Without changing the total amount of the budget for the 1986-87 year, Chouteau trustees agreed unanimously at a hearing Monday night to redistribute the allocations to provide for a computer in the township business office.

Supervisor Morris Miles said the township will no longer be involved with the Senior Aide program since the program officials cannot provide a person for the office position.

The budget includes $1,500 for a senior aide, by taking that amount and the remainder of the computer cost from the building and grounds account, the township will avoiding exceeding the budget total, Miles said.

"Right now, we don't know the exact cost of purchasing a computer. But the assessor's office will also be able to use the equipment and I think it is time to update the office procedure," Miles said.

Patricia Polley, town clerk, explained the building and grounds improvement fund in the amount of $27,000 is included in the federal revenue sharing section of the budget, as was the senior aide program.

Since there were no objections to the proposed appropriations for the year, the trustees approved the budget with the redistribution of funds.

Entertainment

88 Thursday, June 5, 1986, Granite City (Ill.) Press-Record

Meetings

EMOTIONS ANONYMOUS group will meet at the Co-ordinated South Services building, 1254 Niedringhaus Ave., at 8 tonight, June 5. GATEWAY EAST CHAPTER of the Illinois Head Injury Association (HIA) support group will meet Sunday, June 8, from 1:30 to 4 p.m. at Elizabeth Medical Center (Pascual Hall) in Granite City. A video presentation, "Broken Rhymes," will be viewed, with a social hour following.

On stage

NELL CARTER and GREGORY HINES will entertain at the Fox Theater, 327 N. Grand Blvd., through Sunday, June 8. Tickets bought for the originally scheduled concert dates of April 1-6 will be honored for the corresponding days and times. For new tickets, the Fox box office can be called at 1-314-534-1678.

Culinary fare

BARBECUE IS PLANNED Saturday, June 7, from 11 a.m. to 7 p.m. at Bellemore Village Shopping Center, near Shop and Save, by the Elks Loco Club (players born in 1974). Dinners are $3.25 and sandwiches $1.50. Proceeds will help the team travel to a July 4 tournament.

Dances

ST. LOUIS DANCE FESTIVAL 1986 will present a traditional New England Contradance and Square Dance on Sunday, June 8, at 8 p.m. in the Holmes Lounge on the Washington University campus. Tickets, which are $2, can be purchased by calling the Dance St. Louis box office at 1-314-968-3770, or at the door. Contradancing is a forerunner of square dancing and dates back to 17th Century England. Following their performance, the dancers will teach the simpler forms of contradancing and encourage participation by the audience.

Sharing know-how

17TH ANNUAL FAIR will be held Saturday, June 7, by the St. Louis Genealogical Society at the Stratford House, Highway 44 and Boland Road (across from the Chrysler plant) in St. Louis County (Fenton), Mo. 63020. Featured speakers will be Winston DeVille, an authority on French genealogical research; Donna Reid Hotaling, lecturer and researcher on Irish heritage; and Jon Schaumann, who will speak on German genealogy.

AN OPPORTUNITY for those with breast cancer, their family members, and other concerned persons to learn about the disease, its treatment options, future directions in research, and coping with the emotional aspects will be presented from 8:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m., Saturday, June 7, at Barnes Hospital, St. Louis (Scarpellino Auditorium, first floor); $10 registration fee includes educational meetings, information packet, lunch, fashion show and parking.

Other events

ANNUAL CROATIAN HOME PICNIC will be held in Madison Saturday, June 7, and Sunday, June 8, noon to midnight each day. Barbecued pork steaks and barbecued lamb will be served. Polka Toppers will provide dance music from 8 p.m. to midnight Saturday and Vince's Polka Band will play Sunday, June 8, from 7 to 11 p.m. Also featured will be the Becari Tamburitza Orchestra, Happy Strings, Salem School of Dance, Polish/Cultures Troupe and Althoff alumni German dancers.

JAN'S HALLMARK HAS RATS!

Rats have invaded Jan's Hallmark, 16 Crossroads Plaza, Granite City. "They're everywhere," said store co-owner Don Tschannen. "But they're not hard to get rid of because customers are coming in and snapping them off the shelves. They're very friendly rats." Tschannen said. Persons have taken home the stores new line of Goelitz Gummi Pet Rats should follow these directions:

THE PROPER CARE & HANDLING OF GOELITZ GUMMI- PET RATS

1. Handling—In order to keep your Pet Rat clean and happy, be sure to wash your hands before handling. Your Pet Rat's sensitive skin is protected with a very thin coat of oil to keep it shiny and from getting sticky. By the way, Pet Rats don't like to be held by the tail for long periods of time.
2. Housing—Pet Rats like a cool, dry home. Too much heat and they'll melt! Please don't leave your Pet Rat in the sun or outdoors all night.
3. Feeding—For the best flavor, eat your Pet Rat immediately. If you and your Pet Rat becomes pals, buy another one to eat!
4. Collecting—Want to add to your Pet Rat family? Try a different species (flavor) and make a new friend!

Molly Marshmallow
Barbie Bubble Gum
Louie Licorice
Charlie Cherry
Ollie Orange

Remember, all of the flavors of Goelitz Gummi Pet Rats are fun to eat and share with your family and friends.
